

Eight of our lawyers have been appointed in Committees of the Cyprus Bar Association

With professional skills to provide top quality legal services and a range of backgrounds and interests, eight lawyers of our team have been selected among many candidates and appointed in various committees of the Cyprus Bar Association and the Limassol Bar Association.

Mr Stavros Pavlou, Senior and Managing Partner, has been appointed President of the Committee for the Modernization of Law and the Study of Bills of Law and Public Law, and member of the Arbitration and Mediation Committee. Mrs Lia Iordanou Theodoulou, Partner and Head of Corporate Finance is now a member of the Committee on Environment, Energy Law and Investment Programs and the Committee on Shipping and Aviation. Eleana Christofi, Partner in Dispute Resolution, joined the Arbitration and Mediation Committee and the New Lawyers Committee as a member.

Moreover, Ioanna Samara, Senior Associate, joined the Committee for the Modernization of Law, Study of Bills of Law and Public Law and the Committee on Environment, Energy Law and Investment Programs, while Theodoros Symeonides, Senior Associate, has recently been appointed to the new Executive Committee of the Limassol Bar Association.

Christos Ioannou, Senior Associate, joined the Committee on Ethics of Lawyers, Lawyers-Judges Relations and Complaints against the Administration, and two of our Associates, Athina Patsalidou and Eleni Dionysiou are now members of the Cyprus Bar Association's Arbitration and Mediation Committee and the Committee on Environment, Energy Law and Investment Programs respectively.

We are delighted that with their appointments, our Partners and Associates will participate in the promotion of the interests of lawyers in Cyprus and further develop the legal system in the practice areas assigned to each committee. Their skills and knowledge will certainly be of great value to this important decision-making bodies.

We wish them every success during their tenure.
