

Gold Sponsor of the International Arbitration Conference organised by the International Law Association (ILA)

The Cypriot, French and Hellenic branches of the International Law Association (ILA) organised a successful conference on International Arbitration in Larnaca, Cyprus on 30th June and 1st July 2017. Very interesting topics by highly praised international speakers were covered during the conference in the areas of International Arbitral Order, Efficiency in Dispute Resolution and International Arbitration & Financial Institutions.

Being a leading law firm in the international dispute resolution area, Patrikios Pavlou & Associates LLC was highly interested in the event and the law firm was excited and honoured to be accepted as the Gold sponsor of the conference.

Mr Stavros Pavlou, Senior and Managing Partner of the Firm and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, co-chaired the panel “Efficiency in Dispute Resolution” and also, addressed the topic “Interim Measures in Arbitration”. Stimulating discussion followed and the audience, which included more than 80 lawyers and other professionals from Cyprus and abroad, expressed their satisfaction for the valuable outcome of the event. The conference ended with a wine reception offered by Patrikios Pavlou & Associates LLC.
