

Successful representation at the 2nd English-Cypriot Law Day conference and developing further the Arbitration practice of the Firm

The Cyprus Bar Association and the English Bar Council successfully organised the 2nd English-Cypriot Law Day conference, which was held in Limassol, Cyprus on the 8th September 2017.

Highly praised speakers from Cyprus and abroad made stimulating presentations on the developments in the Common Law of England and Wales, Interim Preservation of Assets and evidence in Civil Proceedings, Money Laundering, and much more.

As a leading law firm, Patrikios Pavlou & Associates LLC was one of the main contributors to the event. Mr Stavros Pavlou, Senior and Managing Partner of the Firm, chaired the panel “Interim Preservation of Assets and evidence in Civil Proceedings”, addressing the topic “Interim Measures in Aid of Foreign Proceedings; Is it time for the Black Swan to fly to Cyprus?”.

A lively discussion followed with the audience, which included more than 100 lawyers from Cyprus and abroad. The participants expressed their great satisfaction for all the professional presentations and valuable outcome of the event.

Recently, two of our Firm's lawyers from the dispute resolution practice, Ms Eirini Skouzou and Mr Christos Ioannou, have successfully passed the course Module 2 - The Laws of Arbitration in International Commercial Arbitration by the Cyprus Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb).

The CI Arb is one of the world's leading centres of excellence for the development of arbitration, mediation and other forms of dispute resolution at all levels. It counts 14,000 members and acts as a global hub for practitioners, policy makers, academics and those in business, supporting the global promotion, facilitation and development of all ADR methods.

Congratulations to Eirini and Christos for this professional accomplishment!

Cyprus
Branch

CI Arb

